

Statement of Student Professionalism

By providing opportunities for you to learn to conduct an effective job search, to become familiar with career options, and to gain practical experience, The University of Akron School of Law's (Akron Law) Career Services Office (CSO) welcomes its role in establishing a professional development partnership with you. We take our responsibilities seriously; it is important that you, too, take seriously your role in this partnership.

Attorneys are expected to abide by a shared code of conduct governing ethic

I acknowledge that I have read and will abide by the guidelines in this STATEMENT OF STUDENT PROFESSIONALISM.
